Speak Out for Kids will be held from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. Oct. 20 at North Henderson High School. The event will give local businesses, nonprofits and individuals the opportunity to discuss issues affecting Henderson County children, said Maureen Adams, executive director of the Henderson County Children and Family Resource Center. Adams spoke to a group of local business people Wednesday during the Business Morning Update. "We need to bring to the community an opportunity to weigh-in on what needs to be done for the children in the county," she said. "This is a way to try and create a united vision for a united purpose." Organizers are still seeking participants for the event.
